

Reproductions of Māori Portraits – Guidelines

- For private use or study the Gallery can provide an A4 size reproduction print.
- For any other uses, the Gallery requires permission from a descendant.
- A representative of the Gallery will conduct the iwi consultation on behalf of the requestor at a fee of $30.00 (GST incl) per consultation for each images requested. Please note if the request is unsuccessful the fee is still required.
- The consultation fee will be added to the final reproductions order.
- Other charges for expenses may apply if there are special circumstances.
- There are also the usual reproduction or filming fees as detailed on the pricelist.
- The Gallery does not supply names and addresses of iwi representatives to third parties.
- The requestor must supply full details of the use to which the images are being put using the attached form. These include the objectives of the project for which the images are being used, the context in which they will be used, the distribution arrangements and target audience.
- The Gallery requires at least four weeks for the approval process.
